

MARKETING FROM A TO (GEN) Z

JANUARY 2025 | EDITION

To kickstart the new year with a bang, VK Transformation is committed to helping you reach a whole new target demographic you may have been neglecting- Gen Z. To effectively market to Gen Z, brands must embrace creativity, authenticity, and brevity. With shorter attention spans and a preference for quick, digestible content, this generation gravitates toward platforms like TikTok, Instagram Reels, and YouTube Shorts.

Gen Z values real, unfiltered connections, so it's crucial for brands to showcase their personality and deliver value-packed content that speaks directly to their interests. To succeed, focus on engaging them with relevant, bite-sized messages that spark conversation, build trust, and create lasting relationships. Embrace the power of short-form content to capture their attention and lead the way in the digital age.
